

Fumikazu SATO

Councillor for Innovation Promotion /
Deputy Director General for Science, Technology and Innovation
Cabinet Office, Government of Japan

12 October, 1962 Born in Nagasaki

March 1988 Master of Mathematics, The University of Tokyo

April 1988 (MITI) Joined Ministry of International Trade and Industry

June 1999 First secretary, Japanese Mission to the European Union

May 2005 Director-General, Department of Industry, Economy and Labor, Akita Prefecture Government

May 2008 Vice-governor, Akita Prefecture Government

July 2009 Director, Information Systems and Welfare Division, Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI)

July 2010 Director, Startup and Technology Division, Small and Medium Enterprise Agency, METI

June 2012 Director, Academia-Industry Cooperation Promotion Division, METI

July 2014 Director, Technical Regulations, Standards and Conformity Assessment Policy Division, METI

July 2015 Director for Technology Affairs and Advanced Capacity Building Strategy, METI

June 2016 Deputy Director-General, Manufacturing Industries Bureau, METI

July 2017 Deputy Director-General, Industrial Science & Technology Policy and Environment Bureau, METI

July 2018 Deputy Director General for Science, Technology and Innovation, Cabinet Office of Japan

July 2019-Present Councillor for Innovation Promotion / Deputy Director General for Science, Technology and Innovation, Cabinet Office of Japan