

“Patient involvement and data protection in medicine and medical research and related Ethical, Legal and Social Issues (ELSI)”

Friday, September 17, 2021

Programme

MC Dr. Ralf Stoecker, Practical Philosophy, Department of Philosophy, Bielefeld University

09:00 (CEST) / 16:00 (JST)	Welcome by the DFG, Dr. Heide Ahrens , Secretary General and Dr. Ingrid Krüßmann Director, DFG Office Japan, Deputy Head of International Cooperation
09:10 (CEST) / 16:10 (JST)	Talk by Dr. Fruzsina Molnár-Gábor , Heinz Maier-Leibnitz Prizewinner 2020, International Medical and Data Protection Law, Heidelberg Academy of Sciences and Humanities on “Public interest in genomic medicine”
09:30 (CEST) / 16:30 (JST)	Talk by Dr Kazuto Kato , Biomedical Ethics and Public Policy, Graduate School of Medicine, Osaka University “Dynamic changes in the governance of medical and genomics research – towards more inclusive and equitable approach.”
09:50 (CEST) / 16:50 (JST)	Q&A
09:55 (CEST) / 16:55 (JST)	Break
10:00 (CEST) / 17:00 (JST)	Panel discussion on Ethical, Legal and Social Issues (ELSI), “Changing landscape of medicine – Genomic technology and patient involvement” Chair Dr. Ralf Stoecker Panellists Dr. Fruzsina Molnár-Gábor Dr. Kazuto Kato Ethical Issues Dr. Solveig Lena Hansen , Lecturer in Ethics, Faculty for Human and Health Sciences, Bremen University Legal Issues Haluna Kawashima , Project Associate Professor, Keio Global Research Institute (KGRI) Social Issues Dr. Kaori Sasaki , Center for Medical Education, Sapporo Medical University Data Issues Dr. Soichi Ogishima , Tohoku Medical Megabank Organization, Tohoku University
10:55 (CEST) / 17:55 (JST)	Break / End of Live-Streaming
11:00 (CEST) / 18:00 (JST)	Group discussions in 3 separate groups lead by two panellists each
12:00 (CEST) / 19:00 (JST)	End