

Panel Discussion:

„Diversity in Science – How to promote Inclusion & Empowerment in Japan”

in the context of the Exhibition „Faszination Wissenschaft” (Oct 18-23)

Date: Oct 19 (Wed), 18:00-20:30 JST

Venue: OAG Hall (7-5-56 Akasaka, Minato-ku, Tokyo 107-0052)

Language: English (with Japanese interpretation)

Live stream: on the DWIH Tokyo Youtube Channel

Program:

17:30 Registration

18:00-18:10 Welcome

Axel Karpenstein, Director, DAAD Regional Office Tokyo
Stefan Speidel, Exhibition Organiser, OAG

18:10-18:30 Keynote: Prof. Dr. Kaori Hayashi, Executive Vice President “Diversity and Global Affairs”, The University of Tokyo

18:30-19:30 Panel Discussion

- Chair: Dr. Nora Kottmann, Principal Researcher and Head of Research Group “Methods and Methodologies”, German Institute for Japanese Studies
- Prof. Dr. Yuko Harayama, former Executive Director at RIKEN in charge of international affairs, promotion of young researchers, and diversity
- Prof. Dr. Kaori Hayashi, Executive Vice President “Diversity and Global Affairs”, The University of Tokyo
- Axel Karpenstein, Director, DAAD Regional Office Tokyo
- Herlinde Koelbl, Photographer & Artist, Creator of the project “Faszination Wissenschaft”
- Dr. Nami Sakai, Chief Scientist, Director of Star and Planet Formation Laboratory RIKEN Cluster for Pioneering Research

19:30-20:30 Reception

Managed by

Supported by

Federal Foreign Office